Dear Families,

We hope that you have been having a positive New Year! It is already the end of January and 2020 is off to a wonderful start here at the Palmetto School! Congratulations to our Terrific Kids last week and thank you to all families that were able to come out and celebrate them! The Terrific Kid program is an intricate part of our education program and reinforces character education.

The 100th day of school is this Wednesday, January 29th! We will be celebrating the number 100 the entire day. Parents, students are permitted to dress up as 100 year old citizens to make the day extra special and fun! Teachers will also inform you if there will be any classroom activities. Stay tuned!
